

About Dr. Brown

Dr. Nick Brown graduated Magna Cum Laude from Logan College of Chiropractic in 2010. While in school he especially enjoyed studying human biomechanics and chiropractic sports rehabilitation.

Dr. Brown did an internship at the BIOFREEZE® Sports & Rehabilitation Center where he gained valuable experience working with many high school and collegiate level athletes. Following graduation Dr. Brown moved to Terre Haute and has practiced in this area for the past 5 years.

During this time he has had the wonderful opportunity to meet and help thousands of people achieve healthier, happier lives through chiropractic care.

Dr. Nick is married to his beautiful and loving wife, Angela. Dr. Nick enjoys spending time with his family, which includes his stepson, Jonah, and stepdaughter, Ava. As a family they enjoy walking their two dogs, Quincy and Lola, hiking, camping, swimming, watching movies, and playing board games.

Dr. Nick is also an avid bird watcher, hunter, fisherman and outdoorsman. And on occasion he finds time to watch some of his favorite sports such as basketball, football, and baseball.

Dr. Brown feels so blessed that God has given him the ability to help so many people in our community and it is his privilege to help you too.
